DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-9 and 11-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Independent claim 1 now recites the limitation that the control signal is based upon "at least one channel dependent parameter". New independent claim 13 recites "computing at least one parameter based upon a channel of a transducer element in the transducer array". However, the original disclosure is silent as to the "channel dependent parameter" and the "computing at least one parameter based upon a channel" and as such the instant claims are non-enabling.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 5 and 6 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim cannot dependent upon any other multiple dependent claim(s). See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims 5 and 6 have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-4, 7-9, 11 and 13, as best understood, rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) and/or e) as being anticipated by Cole et al ('033).

Cole et al discloses an ultrasonic transmitter which includes a transducer having a plurality of transducer elements (T-111 – T-114), and a transmitting beamformer (T-50) for providing commands to generate carrier drive signals. Note that the transmit beamformer generates a control signal for each channel. The breath of claim 1 and dependent claims 2-4, 7-9, 11 and 13 is such as to be anticipated by Cole et al.

Art Unit: 3662

6. Claims 1-4, 7-9, 11 and 13, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Miller ('671).

Miller discloses an ultrasonic transmitter which includes a transducer (2) having a plurality of transducer elements (34), and a transmitting beamformer (8) for providing commands to generate carrier drive signals. Note that the transmit beamformer generates a control signal for each channel. The breadth of claim 1 and dependent claims 2-4, 7-9, 11 and 13 is such as to be anticipated by Miller.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 13 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
